

March 31, 2019

ARE WE THERE YET?

I Am a Child

Exodus 20:12, Deuteronomy 5:16

5 things to know about the 10 Commandments

1. They are not a roadmap for how to get to heaven.
2. They served as the fundamental governing principles for the nation of Israel.
3. They still provide a moral framework for society today.
4. They were given for the personal benefit of God's people.
5. They reveal the character and person of God.

5 things to know about the 5th Commandment

1. This is the first of the human relationships commands—so start here!
2. A culture of honor is necessary for the health of any society.
3. Honor is best learned in the home.

6 ways to show honor

- | | |
|---------------|-------------|
| A. Prefer | D. Listen |
| B. Appreciate | E. Obey |
| C. Respect | F. Care for |

4. Honor is a gift we offer, not a reward that is earned.
5. There is no expiration date on this command. (Mark 7:9-13)

March 31, 2019

ARE WE THERE YET?

I Am a Child

Exodus 20:12, Deuteronomy 5:16

5 things to know about the 10 Commandments

1. They are not a roadmap for how to get to heaven.
2. They served as the fundamental governing principles for the nation of Israel.
3. They still provide a moral framework for society today.
4. They were given for the personal benefit of God's people.
5. They reveal the character and person of God.

5 things to know about the 5th Commandment

1. This is the first of the human relationships commands—so start here!
2. A culture of honor is necessary for the health of any society.
3. Honor is best learned in the home.

6 ways to show honor

- | | |
|---------------|-------------|
| A. Prefer | D. Listen |
| B. Appreciate | E. Obey |
| C. Respect | F. Care for |

4. Honor is a gift we offer, not a reward that is earned.
5. There is no expiration date on this command. (Mark 7:9-13)